SERMON #7 - THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN HIS CHILDREN AND THE SUPREME BEING

Holy See, Night of the 1st day of the 2nd month Mậu Tý year (1948)

I promise to continue preaching about the throne and responsibilities of Hộ Pháp, but I think it is not necessary for you all to know about. The most critical matter is the relationship between His children and the Supreme Being.

I see that all His children follow His call and come here because of your love for Him; your souls have responded to Him and regard the Divine Spirit Creator as the Father. His calling us children already signifies love; and so the love of all male and female disciples for Him is limitless. I know that well and must confess that on my return to the Divine Realm, in the Eight-trigram Palace of Judgement, I will testify with surety the passionate love of mankind for the Supreme Being. However, there is this imperfection: if only His children offered such love to each other – the love that you offered to the Supreme Being – so that we can all receive love in this world. On the contrary: You don't!

As such imperfection has crossed its limit, I am obliged to explain to you thoroughly. I wish that the children of the Supreme Being loved each other even more passionately than you love Him.

Everybody! Do not think that you joined the Faith by chance. I would like to assert that it is not by chance; I would like to testify with surety that His children are all in His lap; from plants to human we have had a close and passionate relationship, and boundless love. We all should know that. To tell the truth, souls in this world have been through sufferings together over countless lives before we meet now in the lap of the Supreme Being.

In the 24 Prajna Boats (Wisdom Boats) which brought souls to the earth, you were among the passengers. Now, the Supreme Being has come to fulfill His promise. What did we promise to Him? We promised: "We reincarnated for You to cultivate the spirits of living beings, and guide both evolutionary and original souls back to their old positions; we build the image of the Tao because we love You." Now that the end is coming, the Master comes with the purpose and hope to unite His children with Him.

Alas! If you ever knew; we have endured sufferings together for thousands of lives. There are those of us who were fathers, grandfathers, sisters, and mothers of each other during our reincarnations on earth to sow love among all mankind. You hardly know it; you only know the superficial but not the profound. As we have the same blood, we should love each other. Who knows among our fellow disciples there are those who were once our father, mother, grandfather, or grandmother without us knowing? When our beloved ones pass away, our love for them fades away too fast. As Hộ Pháp, if I say anything to cheat mankind, I will bear the blame one day at the Ngọc Hư Cung (The Heavenly Council of Divine Law/ The Court of God).

Oh! How long does our physical life on earth last? Our life and death comes quickly after days and nights; our physical life is but real. The real world is not here; it is in another world. Why don't we look for it in the eternal realm; why do we keep chasing the shadows?

I wish all of you knew that substantial secret and love each other; let's love each other blindly and one day we will know if we are ever mistaken. I can assert that with the Hộ Pháp's seal in my hand my words are never mistaken. I wish all the children of the Supreme Being would not discriminate between male and female due to your physical body. Who knows some of the females may have been your father or brother. Do not attach importance to this unreal world; you should understand this and follow the truth; do not dream of falsehood. This is my highest wish and dream.
